

Second Grade News

Teacher: Mrs. Mitchell

Date: March 1, 2018

Dear Families,

It has been a great second week with my fantastic 2nd graders! We have been hard at work on Stanford - only one more week to go! Thank you for sending your child to school with a HEALTHY SNACK this week. We will get back into our routine once Stanford is over, I promise!

I will be assigning a weekly IXL as well as homework starting the week of March 12. Please be sure to empty out those Homework Folders and Friday Folders and return them to school the following school day.

Please be sure to register for Mileage Club! The deadline for registration is this Monday (3/5), if your child would like a personalized card.

Have a great weekend,
Nicole Mitchell

English Language Arts

We have been writing a story about being trapped in a snow globe, with a focus on beginning, middle, and end. We also reviewed topic sentences and closing sentences. In Grammar, we reviewed nouns, verbs, and adjectives. We are also reviewing various ELA concepts each day during our "Good Morning Sunshine" daily warm-up. Reading Street will pick up again the week of March 12!

Math

We completed Chapter 7 (Subtraction with Regrouping), and we will be moving on to Chapter 8 (Money) once we finish Stanford. In the meantime, I have been reviewing various concepts with students during our "Good Morning Sunshine" warm-up activity each day.

SCIENCE/SOCIAL STUDIES

Science: Students have been working on and finished Chapter 2 this week. They took their Test on Wednesday. Students brought home an updated Progress Report for Science this week.

Social Studies: Students have learned about rural areas and suburbs while practicing map skills over the past two weeks. Students have also learned about the American Indians and first Europeans coming to America.

Arabic Language Arts

We covered the following material during the past two weeks:

- We continued lesson 8 (In the Morning). We read, wrote, and explained the meaning of the lesson. We answered oral and written questions about dialogue, and learned new vocabulary words:

أشرب الحليب-يستحم – يمشط شعره – أقوم من النوم – أراجع دروسي – أغسل وجهي

- We also learned some grammar rules (Question tools) and how to write the following letters according to their location in the word:

ت – ي

- We also learned how to use these letters in words and use these words in sentences.

ISLAMIC STUDIES

Assalamu Alaykum,

During the past couple of weeks, we covered the third pillar of Islam. Students learned about Zakah; such as how much money a person is expected to give? Or, how Zakah differs from ordinary charity that Muslims might give?

We also reviewed the topic of Honesty and shared different stories of honesty in practice. During the lesson, students were provided with the best example of honesty from the the stories of the prophet وسلم عليه الله صلى; the truthful and the trusted (As-Sadiq Al Ameen).
