Together We Learn

Mathematics

Fourth graders have just completed a chapter on fractions. They learned how to add and subtract fractions. They were also introduced to the start of multiplication. Most challenging is to always remember to simplify their answers! 😊 They have now started working with decimals as well as perimeter.

Language Arts

In language arts we have been reading and discussing a chapter book called: "Stone Fox". Students really enjoyed this book, but perhaps not the ending. We had some good discussions about various ideas in the story. Students continue working on improving reading comprehension skills, writing skills and word study. The new assignment is to write and illustrate a children's book.

Science

Fourth grade science students have been studying about fossils lately. We have focused on what fossils are as well as what fossils can tell us. We had a chance to make gummy fossils before the break. We are still continuing with our Planet Earth series. Our next topic will be chapter 6 which focuses on Earth's resources such as minerals, water and rocks.

Social Studies

In Social Studies, we continue our study of the regions of the United States. The region that the students are learning about now is the midwest. They will learn about the land, the people, the economics and much much more.

Quran
