Social Studies:

Fifth graders will be taking the test on Chapter 8 this Friday. This covers learning about the movement west in the new United States. They have learned about the steamboat, the gold rush and the prairie schooner along with lots of other interesting topics. They have a group project to create an advertisement for a product that might have been sold in the old west. This is due on Monday. We have been moving along well and only have one more chapter to cover!

Great work fifth grade.

Islamic studies & Qur'an

Dear families Assalamu-alaikum,

During the past couple of weeks, we continued our studies about the Seerah of the prophet (s) and discussed some of his family history and his early childhood.

A project about the companions of the prophet was assigned, and students were handed written instructions. Each student will research & present a companion of the prophet (s) in the class. We will start Monday May 14th in-sha-Allah.

Have a nice weekend and if you have any questions or concerns please don't hesitate to contact me at khatib@school.lansingislam.com

Or call me at school (517) 332-3700

Sincerely,

Raghda Khatib

Arabic Language:

Book 1:

we started the new lesson “ this is a beautiful cat”. We read the lesson, identified the meaning of the new vocabulary words, formed new sentences. We also learned and applied the usage of the sentences with the belonging of things and the difference in the usages of these sentences between English and Arabic.

“Omar’s cat is beautiful “ " قطة عمر جميلة "

Book 3:

We started the new lesson “How do you make a cake”. We read the lesson, identifies the meaning of the new vocabulary, formed new sentences, answer the lesson’s questions and started the workbook exercises.

Book 5:

We started the new unit “organizing the time ”. We read the lesson, answered the questions, identified the meaning of the new vocabulary and formed new sentences. We learned and applied the grammar rule for the command verb and how to change verb from present to command.

We will have a vocabulary quiz and a selling test Monday 4/30/2018
