

Islamic studies & Arabic

Dear families Assalamu-alaikum,

We continued our discussion in unit B about death in Islam, we talked about life in the grave, what causes punishment, and how can we avoid it while we still have a chance. We talked about the Hour and its minor signs.

The students took the first quiz in this quarter today.

As for Arabic Class, we continued our activities in the new unit, discussed some grammar rules and practiced them with some examples, worked on the personal dictionaries, introduced the new vocabs to look for as well as searching for their meaning in the regular dictionary.

Thank you to all the parents for coming to the parent teacher conferences. It is your involvement & support that lets your child know how important education is.

Have a nice weekend! And if you have any questions or concerns please don't hesitate to contact me at khatib@school.lansingislam.com

Language Arts

assalamou alaikoum

Language Arts in 7th grade is a study of poetry! We are learning about various types of poetry as well as literary aspects added to quality poems. Students have a poetry project due on November 17th. This project involves writing three different types of poems and creating a display for them. They should look at the scoring rubric to be sure they are including all aspects. Grammar is a study of prepositions and conjunctions.

Sr. Karen

Social studies

students will wrap up their study of the Constitution and the structure of the government. There will be a test on Monday over topic 4 from their book. The next unit will be the study of the Early Republic which is unit 5. We will cover the first few presidencies and events that happened during them.

Math:

We took a test last week over percents and many did not do very well. I want to see the students taking more responsibility for their work and turning things in on time. We started our next chapter on integers. They are not allowed to use calculators during this chapter.

Please email me with any questions or concerns at torrey@school.lansingislam.com Thanks.
