This Week's Highlights

Arabic : Oral greeting, Salam Arabic routine: days of the week, calendar and weather. Alphabet song, and the bird song.

Students are learning to count from 1-70. Reading time: The students read a book. The students are learning to sound out letters with different tashkee (FathaDammah-Kassra)

Quran: The students memorized
Surat Al-Kawther. Quran

During the past two weeks we continue to read stories out loud and identify the plot and major events. The children continue to blend letters to read words! The children are learning to use a vowel in the middle and change the beginning letter and end letter to make different words. In math we continue to practice addition and subtraction. In social studies we talked about the The first thanksgiving and read stories about children in different cultures than our own.

Reminders to Parents

Enjoy the Thanksgiving break!!! Don't forget to send back your child library books!! Our class is nut free!!! Please do not bring lunches or snacks containing nuts!!

Thank You Students! Best regards, Mrs. Christine and Sister Mirvat
